Dear Members:

On behalf of the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund, we want to personally salute each of the US Customs and Boarder Protection Officers at John F. Kennedy Airport for the important work you do to protect America. Your hard work and dedication to uphold law and order is to be commended.

I want to personally thank you for selecting the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund as the benefactor to this year's JFK Health and Welfare Fund's Charity Cigar and Holiday Party. Your important effort to bring attention to our organization helps us to continue to support you and all of the law enforcement family. The contributions your members have made help us achieve and maintain our position as one of law enforcement's leading nonprofit organizations.

Being in public safety today requires not only commitment and sacrifice but a strong will to protect the principles of America. Thank you for all the hard work, dedication and awareness you bring to the important and often difficult job you serve in. Your efforts don't go unnoticed.

Sincerely,

CRAIG W. FLOYD

Dear Members and Attendees,

Thank you for attending our Charity Cigar Party and Holiday Get Together. It has been a long time since we all have gotten together outside of work to celebrate the holidays with each other. There is no better venue to be festive and spread cheer than that of a charity event. I am pleased to be working side by side with the officers of the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund.

The JFK Health and Welfare Fund has grown from a small group organized to provide amenities for employee break rooms, to that of a giant that has raised money and awareness for some very deserving charities. Wounded Warrior Project, Global Medical Relief Fund and now the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund are just some of the recent beneficiaries that we have had the honor of supporting.

Of course our mission is only fulfilled by your support; whether it's by attending an event, buying some raffle tickets, sponsoring a page in the journal or working on the committee organizing the event, it is you who makes this possible. I want to thank all the people who worked hard selling event tickets, journal ads, raffle tickets, or obtained prizes for our raffle. You did an outstanding job – THANK YOU!

On behalf of the JFK Health and Welfare Fund I hope you enjoy our party and that you and your family have a joyous holiday season.

Dear Attendees and Friends,

I would like to personally thank you all for attending the JFK Health and Welfare Fund's Charity Cigar Fundraiser this year. Each year we come together to give back to a worthy organization. This year we have chosen the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund as the benefactor of this wonderful event.

Founded in 1984, the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund is dedicated to honoring and remembering the service and sacrifice of law enforcement officers in the United States. A nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization headquartered in Washington, DC, the Memorial Fund built and continues to maintain the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial - the nation's monument to law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty. The Memorial Fund is a principal organizer of the National Police Week observance each May and hosts a Candlelight Vigil at the Memorial each May 13th to honor all fallen officers.

All of the proceeds of this event will be donated to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund through the Combined Federal Campaign. The Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) is the world's largest and most successful annual workplace charity campaign. The mission of the CFC is to promote and support philanthropy through a program that is employee-focused, cost-efficient, and effective in providing all Federal Employees the opportunity to improve the quality of life for all.

Last year, thanks to the hard work and efforts of the CFC Key Workers and the generosity of our fellow employees here at John F. Kennedy Airport, we were able to raise over $201,000 for many worthy charities. This was the highest amount ever raised by any port in US Customs and Border Protection.

Through your spirit of compassion, the charitable contributions continue to grow each year and the success of the CFC continues here at JFK.

On behalf of the CFC, I would like to thank you once again for making this event a great success.

Sincerely,

Vincent Martucci
Supervisory CBP Officer

NLEOMF Officer of the Month May 2014

Officer Matthew Bowling and Officer Vincent Martucci

U.S. Customs and Border Protection

Washington, DC—The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund has announced the selection of Officer Matthew Bowling and Officer Vincent Martucci, of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), as its Officers of the Month for May 2014.

At approximately 8:00 pm on Monday, October 29, 2012, Hurricane Sandy made landfall in New York City. A full moon generated unusually high tides and amplified Sandy's storm surge. Ocean water gushed over seawalls, streets flooded, and trees and power lines were knocked down. Emergency call centers were overloaded and few calls got through. After several unsuccessful attempts to reach a 911 operator, CBP Officer Mariano Fontana placed a frantic call to the CBP Command Center at John F. Kennedy International Airport. He explained that he and his family were trapped in the attic of their home, located just blocks from the ocean, in Howard Beach, Queens. At the time of the call, the lower levels of the residence were already completely flooded.

CBP Officers Matthew Bowling and Vincent Martucci, along with CBP Chief David Bello, responded to the call. Due to the extreme weather conditions, it took more than 30 minutes for the officers to drive the six miles to the Fontana's home. With winds exceeding 75 mph, along with the pounding rain, the flooding and debris covering the roadways, the closest the officers could get to the house was four city blocks away. Officers Bowling and Martucci parked their vehicle, grabbed over 50 pounds of equipment, and ventured into the neck deep water.

Downed electrical lines and debris hampered their progress. At times they had to swim, rather than walk, as the flood levels exceeded six feet. During this dangerous trek, the officers took turns motivating one another to keep going. When they located the residence, they were relieved to learn that the family was safe. The next task was to determine the safest way to evacuate the family from the residence. Officers Bowling and Martucci stayed in constant contact with the CBP Command Center, and soon a secure evacuation route was established. However, Officers Bowling and Martucci realized that other residents on that street might need assistance as well. The two officers went door-to-door to the neighboring homes to offer their help before escorting the Fontana family to the CBP personnel waiting to transport them to a safe location.

More than 280 people lost their lives as Superstorm Sandy wreaked havoc from the Caribbean islands, up the East coast to Canada, and out to the Appalachians and the Midwest. If not for the bravery of Officers Bowling and Martucci, the Fontana family might have been included in that staggering statistic.

According to Customs and Border Protection Officer Monyr Thabet, "Officers Bowling and Martucci rose above and beyond the call of duty when faced with imminent danger to help those in need." In submitting the nomination of Officers Bowling and Martucci, Supervisory CBP Officer Alan Wolfe stated, "Officer Bowling and Officer Martucci are both courageous and outstanding officers who show the true meaning of what the Memorial Fund's Officer of the Month Award stands for."

Located in the nation's capital, the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund is a nonprofit organization dedicated to honoring the service and sacrifice of America's law enforcement officers. The Memorial Fund's Officer of the Month Program began in 1996 and recognizes federal, state, and local officers who distinguish themselves through exemplary law enforcement service and devotion to duty.

CBP Officers Matthew Bowling and Vincent Martucci, along with the other Officer of the Month Award winners for 2014, will be honored at a special awards luncheon in Washington, DC, in May 2015, during National Police Week. In addition, their stories of heroism and service will be featured in the Memorial Fund's annual calendar.
